Get the best of both worlds and change the way you think about heating with Daikin Nexura.

Using the state-of-the-art technology and efficiency you'd expect from a Daikin, not only does the Daikin Nexura floor standing air conditioner offer the best of both heating and cooling as well as comfort and design, its best feature is a hidden one; the front radiant panel also heats up to give you that unique familiar comfort of a traditional warm radiator.

Engineered in Europe it also has a modern design that blends in seamlessly with your home's decor to turn any room into a haven.
